INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY
USE OF FORCE
STUN-BAG, SUSPECT HOSPITALIZED
401-02583-2822-146

On Wednesday, February 14, 2001, Sergeants Henry Reyes and William Borngrebe of the Internal Affairs Bureau responded to Compton Station regarding a significant use of force incident, use of stun-bag, suspect hospitalized. Internal Affairs Bureau Lieutenant Gregory Johnson also responded. We were briefed on the incident by the Compton Station Watch Commander, Lieutenant Burnett.

INVOLVED PERSONNEL

Kovac, Kresimir, Deputy #[redacted], Compton Station
[redacted] Deputy #[redacted], Compton Station

SUSPECT/INMATE:

Rosas, Salvador, MH/26. Booking # 6771-135
Criminal history, see Exhibit C

WITNESSES:

Saldecke, Mark, Sergeant #[redacted]
[redacted] Deputy #[redacted]
Girard, Carlos, Deputy #[redacted]
Cocke, Rick, Deputy #[redacted]

INVOLVED EMPLOYEES STATEMENTS:

Deputy Kovac said he was working Unit 287, with his partner Deputy [redacted] He and [redacted] added themselves to a man with a knife call, as an assisting unit. When they arrived on Cedar Street, the handling unit (Deputy [redacted] advised them that the suspect had left the location. [redacted] also told him that the suspect was wanted for assaulting his ex-girlfriend and for threatening to kill her. During [redacted] investigation of the incident, he ([redacted]) learned from the suspect's father, that the suspect might be hiding in a garage east of their location. He (Kovac) set up a small containment to cover the backside of the garage area. Sergeant Saldecke, Deputies [redacted] Girard, [redacted], Cocke and he approached the garage from the Cedar Street side and conducted a door knock. He and Deputy [redacted] organized an entry team, he was the designated stun-bag shooter (less than lethal weapon), Deputies [redacted] and Girard were the arrest team and Deputy [redacted] was the designated shooter, if deadly force was needed.

They knocked on the door to the garage and either [redacted] o[redacted] called to the suspect, by his name to come out, the suspect did not answer. The suspect's father also knocked on the garage door and asked his son (suspect) to come out, without success. They were given keys and permission to enter the garage by the owners. They entered the garage, converted into a one room living quarter. Initially it did not appear that the suspect was in the garage. Deputy [redacted] lifted up the mattress to a bed and found the suspect hiding underneath. The suspect was laying face down, his hands were concealed under his body.

Deputy Kovac ordered the suspect to show his hands repeatedly. The suspect turned his face toward him and said "fuck you, kill me, kill me." Deputy [redacted] sprayed the suspect with a burst of O.C. (Oleoresin Capsicum) spray. The suspect continued to say "fuck you, kill me." Deputy [redacted] sprayed the suspect with a second burst of O.C. spray. The spray seemed to anger the suspect even more. The suspect began to move, the suspect stated, "I've got a gun, I'm going to shoot, I have a gun." The suspect moved his arms from under his body, he (Kovac) fired one round which struck the suspect on his right side. The suspect continued to move and he fired a second round striking the suspect in the same general area.

The suspect rolled onto his right side with his back toward him. Based on the suspect's earlier statement that he had a gun, coupled with the fact he (Kovac) could not see the suspect's hands and the suspect's movements, (suspect rolling to his left toward him) he fired a third round. The third round, struck the suspect on the tricep portion of his (suspects') left-arm. During this entire time he (Kovac) was continually telling the suspect to stop moving and show his hands. The suspect continued to roll toward him (suspect is now on his back) and he could partially see the suspect's hands clenched near the suspect's chest. The suspect's baggy shirt was concealing his hands and he fired a fourth round. The fourth round, struck the suspect on the right hand. The suspect gave up at this time and was pulled from underneath the bed by Deputy [redacted] The suspect was handcuffed and did not resist.

Deputy Kovac said they did not request a canine unit because they were unsure if the suspect was still inside the garage. He explained that he and [redacted] took charge of organizing the entry team because Deputy [redacted] was a former Compton Police Officer, who was not familiar with Sheriff's Department entry and search techniques. The entire entry and search plan was approved by Sergeant Saldecke prior to them making entry. He added that considering the suspect's actions, he believes the entire entry team showed a great deal of restraint and should be commended for their actions.

Deputy [redacted] said he and Deputy Kovac were assigned to work [redacted] a family disturbance/ man with a knife call was broadcast. He assigned their unit to assist on the call. When they arrived at the location, he was told by the handling unit (Deputy [redacted] that the suspect assaulted his girlfriend [redacted] and threatened to kill her. He also learned the suspect was in possession of a knife and had left the location. During the search of the victim's apartment complex, Deputy [redacted] learned from a male (later identified as the suspect's father) the suspect was hiding in a converted garage at [redacted] E. Cedar Street. Sergeant Saldecke, Deputies Kovac, Girard, Cocke [redacted] and he went to that location, which is about five houses east of the victim's residence.

Deputy [redacted] confirmed with the resident owners, that the suspect might be hiding in the converted garage. A plan was devised to get the suspect out of the converted garage. Deputy Girard and he are the designated arrest team, Deputy Kovac is the designated less that lethal weapon and Deputy [redacted] is the designated deadly force shooter. Deputy [redacted] knocked on the door to the garage and called for the suspect to come out, the suspect did not respond. The suspect's father also called to the suspect and asked him to come out of the garage, the suspect did not respond. He said Deputy [redacted] opened the door to the converted garage and found the suspect hiding underneath a bed.

The suspect was ordered to show his hands repeatedly. The suspect responded, "fuck you, kill me, kill me." The suspect's hands are under his body and he is laying face down. He [redacted] hadn't seen a weapon so he applied a burst of O.C. (Oleoresin Capsicum) spray at the suspect. The O.C. spray did not have any effect on the suspect. He sprayed a second burst of O.C. spray with no visible effect. The suspect said "I have a gun, I'm going to kill you." He backed away from the suspect and moved behind Deputy Kovac. Deputy Kovac gave the suspect numerous additional commands, "show me your hands, show me your hands," the suspect did not comply.

Deputy Kovac then fired two rounds from the stun-bag hitting the suspect on his right side below his armpit. Deputy Kovac repeated his command to the suspect to show his hands, the suspect did not comply. Deputy Kovac then fired two additional stun-bag rounds hitting the suspect in his left arm and right hand. As the suspect tuned onto his back, his hands were fully visible, he did not have a weapon. He pulled the suspect from beneath the bed by his leg and handcuffed him without further incident. Deputy [redacted] added that an M-26 Taser gun would have, in his opinion, been effective in this incident.

WITNESSES STATEMENTS:

Sergeant Saldecke said he responded to [redacted] E. Cedar Street, regarding a boyfriend/girlfriend disturbance male armed with a knife call. He met with Deputies Kovac and [redacted] (assisting unit) and one additional unit before making contact with the victim [redacted]. The victim told them that her ex-boyfriend (Suspect Rosas) had broken a window at the location, assaulted her and threatened to kill her. He was told that the suspect was armed with a knife. While they spoke to the victim, the suspect's father contacted them and told them that his son (suspect) was at a neighbor's house at [redacted] E. Cedar Street. He and Deputies Kovac, [redacted] Cocke, and Girard went to that location. Deputy Kovac was armed with a stun-bag as they made contact with the residents of the front house. The residents confirmed that the suspect was hiding in a converted garage on their property. The deputies made numerous attempts to call the suspect out of the garage unsuccessfully.

He said the suspect's father also called out to his son, asking him to come out of the garage but the suspect ignored him as well. Using keys provided to them by the owners of the property they opened the door and made entry into the one room-converted garage. Initially it did not appear that anyone was in the room. Deputy Girard spotted the suspect hiding beneath a bunk bed which was located along the south wall.

Deputy Kovac called out to the suspect repeatedly "show us your hands, show us you hands." The suspect replied, "your going to have to shoot me, I have a gun under here, your going to have to kill me." The deputies again gave him verbal commands to come out from under the bed and show his hands. The suspect ignored their commands. Deputy [redacted] lifted a corner of the mattress partially exposing the suspect who was lying on his stomach. Deputy [redacted] pepper sprayed the suspect and gave him verbal commands to come out from underneath the bed. The suspect ignored his commands. Deputy [redacted] pepper sprayed the suspect a second time. The pepper spray seemed to have no effect on the suspect. Deputy [redacted] managed to pull the mattress upwards exposing most of the suspect's body but they still were unable to see the suspect's hands.

The suspect was again given verbal commands to show his hands. The suspect replied "your going to have to shoot me." Deputy Kovac fired two stun-bag rounds at the suspect in quick succession. After the second round struck the suspect, he rolled onto his right side but still concealed his hands from view. Deputy Kovac fired a third stun-bag round which struck the suspect on the backside of his left arm. The suspect began to roll over on his back and Deputy Kovac fired a fourth round which struck the suspect on his right hand. At this point the suspect's hands were exposed and they could see that he did not have a weapon. The suspect was pulled from beneath the bed by his leg and handcuffed without further incident. He directed Deputy Cocke to get paramedics for the injured suspect. The suspect was walked to a radio car and examined by paramedics. Sergeant Saldecke added that an "M-26" Taser gun, (in which he is trained in) might have been more effective in this situation. He explained that he had not been to Field Operations School and was not trained on the use of the older style Taser gun carried in the sergeant's vehicle.

IAB Note: To review photographs of [redacted] E. Cedar Street, Compton, refer to Exhibit A.

Deputy [redacted] said he was assigned to handle a disturbance/man with a knife call involving a boyfriend/girlfriend at [redacted] E. Cedar Street, Compton. He contacted the Victim [redacted] and determined that she had been assaulted and threatened with death, by Suspect Rosas, the father of her four children. Further investigation revealed that the suspect lived close by and might be at a neighbor's house at [redacted] E. Cedar Street. He went to that location and spoke with a resident who advised him that the suspect was hiding in a converted garage.

He was given keys to the converted garage and accompanied by Sergeant Saldecke and Deputies Kovac, [redacted] Girard and Cocke attempted to make contact with the suspect. He knocked on the door to the garage and ordered the suspect to come out of the garage. The suspect's father also called to the suspect, asking the suspect to come out of the garage, the suspect ignored his requests. He said prior to entering the location they formulated a plan. Deputy Kovac was the designated shooter of the stun-bag gun. He opened the door to the garage and located the suspect hiding underneath a bunk bed. Deputy Kovac ordered the suspect to show his hands but the suspect ignored him. He lifted the mattress which exposed the suspect who was laying on his stomach with his hands underneath him. Deputy [redacted] pepper sprayed the suspect after he refused to show his hands. Deputy [redacted] applied a second short burst of O.C. (Oleoresin Capsicum) spray with no effect.

The suspect refused to show his hands and stated "fuck you, I've got a gun, I'm going to shoot you." He said that Deputy Kovac fired two rapid stun-bag rounds at the suspect. The suspect rolled his onto his right side but still refused to show his hands. Deputy Kovac fired a third and fourth round at the suspect. The suspect complied and showed his hands. The suspect was pulled by his leg from beneath the bed and handcuffed by Deputies [redacted] and Kovac.

Deputy Girard said he accompanied Sergeant Saldecke and Deputies [redacted], Kovac, [redacted] and Cocke to [redacted] E. Cedar Street, for the purpose of arresting Suspect Rosas. Prior to entering the converted garage, numerous announcements were made by the deputies asking the suspect to come out. The suspect's father also attempted to get the suspect to exit the location without success. Once they made entry into the room, the suspect was found hiding beneath a bunk bed. The suspect was laying face down his hands concealed beneath his body. Someone (unknown which deputy) called out to the suspect "show your hands, show us your hands." The suspect was becoming increasingly belligerent, yelled profanities and stated "shoot me."

Deputy [redacted] lifted the mattress up and exposed the suspect but they still could not see his hands. Deputy [redacted] pepper sprayed the suspect who continued to yell "fuck you guys, your going to have to shoot me." The suspect was sprayed a second time with no effect. The suspect then stated that he had a gun. He saw Deputy Kovac fire two rounds from the stun-bag at the suspect. He heard the suspect say "Oh you should have shot me with real bullets." The suspect continued to resist by not showing his hands. The suspect rolled onto his right side but his hands were still concealed. Deputy Kovac yelled "show us you hands" and fired a third and fourth round. After the fourth round the suspect's hands could be seen. The suspect was dragged by his leg from beneath the bed and handcuffed. The suspect was treated by paramedics at the location and transported to Saint Francis Hospital.

Deputy Cocke said he responded to the location along with his partner (Deputy Girard) and assisted Deputy [redacted] on a Terrorist Threats/Domestic Violence call. He learned that the suspect involved was last seen at [redacted] E. Cedar Street, possibly armed with a knife. The suspect's father told them that the suspect was hiding in the converted garage. The suspect's father called out to the suspect and asked him to come out of the garage without success. He stood outside of the garage while Sergeant Saldecke, Deputies [redacted] Kovac, [redacted] and Girard entered the garage. He could see into the room and hear the suspect yell "shoot me, I've got a gun, mother fuckers shoot me." He could hear the deputies yelling at the suspect "let me see your hands." He heard the stun-bag being deployed and heard four shots. He added that he was more focused on keeping the suspect's father out of the incident and didn't see who fired the stun-bag.

SUSPECT/INMATE STATEMENTS.

On February 15, 2001, at approximately 12:15 p.m., I spoke with Salvador Rosas. I explained the purpose of my investigation and I asked him to tell me about the incident. Salvador Rosas said earlier in the evening, he argued with his common-law wife (Victim [redacted]). He explained that he and his wife have four children together, but they are currently separated. During the argument, [redacted] cousin picked up a knife and threw the knife in his direction.

As he was leaving, he (Rosas) picked up the knife and threw it at a window, breaking the window to Victim [redacted] apartment. He went to a neighbor's house ([redacted] E. Cedar Street, Compton) to have a smoke and ask permission to stay in the one room converted garage. He was feeling depressed but insisted that he had not been drinking or using any drugs. He knew the deputies were outside because he had seen one of them carrying a shotgun. He heard the deputies telling him to "come out, come out," but he was scared and frightened. He decided to hide under a bunk bed in the room. He positioned himself under the bed stomach down. His hands were palms down and next to his face. He remembered hearing his father calling him but did not hear any deputies ask him to come outside. He said the deputies entered the room and found him hiding under the bed. He heard one of the deputies shout, "show me your hands." He was immediately pepper sprayed by another deputy. He said the spray burned the skin on his face and neck but he did not make any attempt to surrender.

Two or three seconds after he was pepper sprayed, he was shot with a "bean bag"on the right side of his upper body just below his right armpit. He was shot (second bean bag round) a second time in the same area. He started to give up by raising his arms but didn't say anything. He was shot a third time with a bean bag. The third bean bag round struck the backside of his left arm. He tried to stand up but was shot a fourth time. The bean bag struck his right index finger. During the time he was being shot with the stun-bag he never told the deputies that he wanted to surrender or give up. He did not remember ever telling the deputies that he had a gun. He did not recall telling the deputies to shoot and kill him. He repeated that he was feeling depressed and conceded that he might have of made a statement similar to that. He said that during the entire incident he felt "like he was somewhere else." He was pulled from beneath the bed by his leg and handcuffed. He added that after he was placed in handcuffs and taken a patrol car he did say something to the deputies similar to, "You should have used real bullets."

IAB Note: To review photographs of Suspect Rosas' injuries refer, to Exhibit B.

INJURIES:
Suspect Salvador Rosas received two abrasions and a very large contusion to the right side of his body just below his right armpit, a laceration to the backside of his left arm and a broken index finger on his right hand which required surgery to repair. Initially Rosas was treated at King/Drew Medical Center and later transported to the jail ward at U.S.C./Los Angeles Medical Center. The attending Physicians concluded that the injuries were consistent with being shot at close range with multiple stun-bag rounds.

PHYSICAL EVIDENCE:

All four stun-bag rounds fired by Deputy Kovac struck the suspect. Two rounds struck the suspect's right side, approximately eight inches below his right armpit. The third round, struck the suspect on the backside of his left arm. The fourth round, struck the suspect on his right hand and middle finger.

INVESTIGATOR OBSERVATIONS:

The converted garage is described as follows: cluttered, measuring approximately eight feet wide by 12 feet deep, one room, containing a set of bunk beds, couch, dresser, stereo and television. There was no property damage reported or observed. The civil ligation unit was not notified.

WEAPONS USED BY DEPUTY PERSONNEL:

"Ithaca" Stun-bag shotgun and four stun-bag rounds were deployed by Deputy Kovac.

WEAPONS USED BY SUSPECTS

During the incident the suspect claimed that he had a gun. The deputies were also told by Victim [redacted] that the suspect might be armed with a knife.

PROPERTY DAMAGE

No property damage reported or observed.

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATOR:

On March 07, 2001, Detective Jackson (assigned investigator) informed me that Suspect Rosas pled guilty to a charge of terrorist threats. As part of his plea agreement he received a 16-month sentence to State Prison.

IAB Note: To review to a copy of Compton Station's investigative package refer to, Exhibit C.

On the above date and time I, [redacted] responded to [redacted] Cedar St. regarding a 415 PC, disturbing the peace between a boyfriend/girlfriend. The call indicated the suspect was in front of the location armed with a knife and breaking windows.

I arrived at the location and interviewed the V/ [redacted] V/ [redacted] said the suspect, identified as Salvador Rosas is the father of her four children, [redacted]

V [redacted] said S/ Rosas, came to her house and was angry about a Valentines Day card that he left for the kids. V/ [redacted] said S/ Rosas began verbally abusing her and yelled, "When in the fuck are you going to get out of here!"

V/ [redacted] said S/ Rosas continued to yell stating, "I hate you!" "I'm going to kill you!" V/ [redacted] said she was scared for her safety and the safety of their children.

V/ [redacted] said S/ Rosas dropped the clothes he was holding and she heard an object hit the ground. V/ [redacted] said S/ Rosas grabbed her shirt with both of his hands, and threw her to the ground. V/ [redacted] said she saw S/ Rosas pick up a small knife from the ground and went outside.

V/ [redacted] said S/ Rosas continued yelling, "I want you dead!" V/ [redacted] said S/ Rosas smashed both windows to location with an unknown object. V/ [redacted] said glass shattered inside the house almost hitting the children, V/2-3. V/ [redacted] said S/ Rosas left on foot in an unknown direction.

V/ [redacted] shirt was torn and I did not see any injuries. V/ [redacted] said she was not injured, and refused any medical treatment.

Deputies Kovac [redacted], Montenegro [redacted], Girard [redacted] and Sgt. Saldecke [redacted] were on scene to assist. I contacted the father of S/ Rosas, [redacted] at [redacted] told me that his son, S/ Rosas may be down the street at [redacted] E. Cedar St.

I contacted [redacted] at [redacted] Montoya said that S/ Rosas ran into the detached rear garage of the location. [redacted] gave me the key to the door of the garage.

We went to the rear garage of the location and made several attempts to contact S/ Rosas. S/ Rosas father, [redacted] also made several unsuccessful attempts to contact S/ Rosas.

I opened the door and we entered the location to check for S/ Rosas. Due to S/ Rosas being armed with a knife, Deputy Kovac was carrying the stun bag shotgun for a less than lethal option.

We found S/ Rosas hiding underneath the lower bunk bed inside the small converted garage. S/ Rosas was lying face down with his arms under his body. We ordered S/ Rosas several times to come out from under the bed. S/ Rosas become hostile and began yelling, "fuck you I'm not coming out!" We were not able to see S/ Rosas hands, and because he was becoming agitated, I lifted the bed in order to expose S/ Rosas.

Deputy Kovac continued giving verbal commands and S/ Rosas screamed "Fuck You!" "Kill Me!" S/ Rosas refused to comply with Deputy Kovac's verbal commands and continued to conceal his hands underneath his body.

S/ Rosas was becoming increasingly hostile. In an effort to deescalate the situation, Deputy [redacted] sprayed a burst of Oleoresin Capsicum (O.C.) into the face of S/ Rosas in order get him to comply (for further details see Deputy [redacted] supplemental report). The O.C. spray appeared to have no effect on S/ Rosas and he continued to disregard Deputy Kovac's verbal commands.

S/ Rosas continued yelling, "Kill Me!" "Kill Me!" Deputy [redacted] sprayed a second burst of O.C. spray at S/ Rosas. S/ Rosas yelled "I got a gun!" "I'm going to kill you!" S/ Rosas would still not show us his hands. As a results of S/ Rosas actions, Deputy Kovac fired two rounds from the stun bag shotgun (for further see Deputy Kovac's supplemental report).

S/ Rosas still would not comply with Deputy Kovac's verbal commands to show us his hands. S/ Rosas quickly rolled towards us, and Deputy Kovac fired two more rounds from the stun bag shotgun.

S/ Rosas then showed us his hands and was pulled from underneath the bed. Deputies handcuffed S/ Rosas and he was placed under arrest without further incident.

S/ Rosas was arrested for 422 PC, criminal threats, 243(e)(1) PC, battery on parent of defendants child, 273a PC, child endangerment, and 69 PC, resisting executive officers.

S/ Rosas was treated by Compton Fire Paramedics for O.C. exposure and injuries sustained from the stun bag. I saw S/ Rosas had lacerations to his left tricep area and right hand.

S/ Rosas was transported to St. Francis Medical Center by Compton Fire Department for further treatment for injuries received from the stun bag.

Deputies Cocke and Girard unit 285, escorted S/ Rosas to St. Francis Medical Center. (for further details see supplementary report by Deputy Girard)

S/ Rosas was booked with the approval of Sgt. Saldecke, the EM Watch Commander.

NARRATIVE

THE PURPOSE OF THIS SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT IS TO PROVIDE INFORMATION REGARDING A USE OF FORCE.

ON 02-14-2001 AT 1705 HRS, WE RESPONDED TO A CALL OF A MAN WITH A KNIFE AT [redacted] E. CEDAR ST, APARTMENT [redacted] COMPTON (TAG 277).

WE CONTACTED UNIT [redacted] DEPUTY [redacted]. DEPUTY [redacted] INFORMED US A MAN (LATER IDENTIFIED AS S/ROSAS) HAD JUST ASSAULTED HIS EX-GIRLFRIEND AND THREATENED TO KILL HER. S/ROSAS WAS IN POSSESSION OF A KNIFE. DEPUTY [redacted] STATED S/ROSAS HAD COMMITTED AND WAS WANTED FOR THE FOLLOWING CRIMES: TERRORIST THREATS 422 PC AND SPOUSAL BATTERY 243(E)(1) PC.

S/ROSAS WAS ON PROBATION FOR SPOUSAL ASSAULT.

DEPUTY [redacted] WAS INFORMED THAT S/ROSAS HAD RUN TO THE DETACHED REAR GARAGE OF THE HOUSE AT [redacted] E. CEDAR ST, COMPTON.

BASED ON THE NATURE OF THE FELONY CRIMES (422 PC, 243(E)(1) PC AND 207 PC) AND THE PROPENSITY FOR S/ROSAS TO RETURN TO THREATEN/INJURE THE VICTIM WE WENT TO [redacted] E. CEDAR ST. IN ATTEMPT TO LOCATE HIM.

WE CONTACTED [redacted] ([redacted]) WHO IS THE [redacted] OF S/ROSAS. [redacted] TOLD US S/ROSAS WAS INSIDE THE DETACHED GARAGE. [redacted] KNOCKED ON THE DETACHED GARAGE DOOR IN AN ATTEMPT TO GET S/ROSAS TO EXIT; HOWEVER, NO ONE ANSWERED.

WE MADE NUMEROUS ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR S/ROSAS TO EXIT THE GARAGE. S/ROSAS DID NOT EXIT OR ANSWER.

DATE: 02-14-2001 FILE NO. 401-02583-2822-146

DEPUTY [redacted], DEPUTY [redacted] DEPUTY GIRARD [redacted] SGT SALDECKE [redacted] AND I ENTERED THE DETACHED GARAGE TO ASCERTAIN IF S/ROSAS WAS INSIDE. I WAS CARRYING AN ITHACA BEAN BAG GUN IN CASE A LESS LETHAL ALTERNATIVE WAS NEEDED TO APPREHEND S/ROSAS.

WE SAW S/ROSAS WAS LAYING ON THE FLOOR ON HIS STOMACH. HE WAS HIDING UNDER A DOUBLE BUNK BED WHICH WAS AGAINST THE SOUTH WALL OF THE ROOM. S/ROSAS WAS HIDING BOTH OF HIS HANDS UNDERNEATH HIS UPPER BODY. S/ROSAS WAS SWEATING AND HIS FACE APPEARED TO BE FLUSHED.

THE VICTIM OF THE CALL HAD STATED S/ROSAS WAS IN POSSESSION OF A KNIFE. I FEARED S/ROSAS MAY STILL HAVE POSSESSION OF A KNIFE, WHICH WAS A DANGER TO MYSELF AND THE OTHER ASSISTING DEPUTIES INSIDE THE ROOM.

DEPUTY [redacted] STEPPED TO THE FOOT OF THE BED AND LIFTED UP THE MATTRESS, EXPOSING S/ROSAS.

I TOLD S/ROSAS, IN A LOUD AND CLEAR VOICE, "SHOW ME YOUR HANDS." S/ROSAS SCREAMED "FUCK YOU! KILL ME, KILL ME!" S/ROSAS WAS HIGHLY AGITATED AND APPEARED TO BE ENRAGED. S/ROSAS REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH MY REPEATED VERBAL COMMANDS. S/ROSAS CONTINUED TO CONCEAL HIS HANDS UNDERNEATH HIS BODY. HE APPEARED AS IF HE WAS HIDING SOMETHING UNDERNEATH HIS BODY.

S/ROSAS REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH OUR COMMANDS. HE APPEARED TO BECOMING INCREASINGLY HOSTILE AND ANGRY. WE WERE AFRAID TO APPROACH HIM BECAUSE HE WAS CONCEALING HIS HANDS AND WAS LAST SEEN IN POSSESSION OF A KNIFE.

IN ATTEMPT TO DEESCALATE THE SITUATION, DEPUTY MONTENEGRO SPRAYED A ONE SECOND BURST OF OLEORESIN CAPSICUM (O.C.) SPRAY AT S/ROSAS'S HEAD/FACE IN AN ATTEMPT TO HAVE HIM COMPLY. THE O.C. SPRAY SEEMED TO HAVE LITTLE AFFECT ON S/ROSAS. I CONTINUED TO ASK S/ROSAS , IN A LOUD VOICE, TO SHOW US HIS HANDS.

S/ROSAS AGAIN YELLED "KILL ME!" DEPUTY [redacted] AGAIN SPRAYED S/ROSAS WITH A ONE SECOND BURST OF O.C. IN ATTEMPT TO HAVE HIM SHOW US HIS HANDS. THE O.C. AGAIN SEEMED TO HAVE LITTLE AFFECT.

S/ROSAS REFUSED TO FOLLOW ANY OF MY REPEATED INSTRUCTIONS.

SEVERAL SECONDS LATER S/ROSAS SCREAMED "I GOT A GUN, I'M GOING TO KILL YOU!" S/ROSAS'S HANDS WERE STILL CONCEALED UNDER HIS BODY. HE NOW TURNED AND LOOKED IN OUR DIRECTION AND APPEARED TO BE MOVING HIS BODY AND UPPER ARMS. IT APPEARED AS IF HE WAS MOVING AN OBJECT UNDERNEATH HIS BODY.

BASED ON HIS STATEMENT ("I HAVE A GUN") AND HIS ACTIONS, I IMMEDIATELY THOUGHT S/ROSAS PROBABLY HAD A HANDGUN HIDDEN UNDERNEATH HIS BODY. I THOUGHT OF IMMEDIATELY TRANSITIONING TO A HIGHER LEVEL OF FORCE (MY DUTY SIDEARM) DUE TO THE INHERENT DANGER S/ROSAS NOW POSED (SUSPECT WITH A HANDGUN). I DECIDED TO CONTINUE TO DEPLOY THE ITHACA BEAN BAG GUN BASED ON THE FACT S/ROSAS HAD NOT YET EXHIBITED A FIREARM OR POINTED IT AT US.

I CONTINUED TO TALK TO S/ROSAS IN AN ATTEMPT TO DEESCALATE HIS POTENTIALLY VIOLENT ACTIONS. S/ROSAS ACTED AS IF HE DID NOT HEAR ME. I AGAIN ASKED S/ROSAS TO SHOW US HIS HANDS AND TO COMPLY WITH OUR DIRECTIONS.

S/ROSAS SUDDENLY JERKED HIS UPPER ARMS. IMMEDIATELY, I FEARED HE MAY BE ATTEMPTING TO DRAW A FIREARM WHICH WAS UNDERNEATH HIS UPPER BODY. I DISCHARGED TWO LESS LETHAL 12 GAUGE "MK BALLISTICS SYSTEM FLEXIBLE BATON" BEAN BAG ROUNDS. THE TWO BEAN BAGS STRUCK S/ROSAS IN THE RIGHT RIBCAGE AREA.

I AGAIN TOLD S/ROSAS TO SHOW US HIS HANDS. S/ROSAS REFUSED AND AGAIN SCREAMED I'M GOING TO SHOOT!" S/ROSAS THEN BEGAN ROLLING ONTO HIS RIGHT SIDE WITH HIS BACK TOWARDS US. I AGAIN BECAME FEARFUL S/ROSAS WAS ABOUT BRANDISH A FIREARM AT US. I AGAIN CONSIDERED ESCALATING THE LEVEL OF FORCE AND TRANSITIONING TO MY SIDEARM.

I DECIDED TO AGAIN USE A LOWER LEVEL OF FORCE TO ATTEMPT TO MINIMIZE THE INJURY TO S/ROSAS.

S/ROSAS CONTINUED TO ROLL OVER ONTO HIS RIGHT SIDE. HIS HANDS WERE NOW COMPLETELY CONCEALED BY HIS UPPER TORSO. S/ROSAS WAS NOT COMPLYING WITH ANY OF OUR INSTRUCTIONS (STOP, DON'T MOVE, SHOW US YOUR HANDS).

FEARING S/ROSAS WAS TURNING OVER IN AN ATTEMPT TO POINT A HANDGUN AT US, I DISCHARGED ONE BEAN BAG ROUND AT S/ROSAS' LEFT TRICEP AREA. THE BEAN BAG ROUND SEEMED TO HAVE NO EFFECT ON HIM.

S/ROSAS CONTINUED TO ROLL OVER ONTO HIS RIGHT SIDE/BACK. HE HAD BOTH OF HIS HANDS CLENCHED AND TOP OF THE CENTER OF HIS CHEST. HIS SHIRT WAS PARTIALLY BAGGED UP AROUND HIS CLENCHED FISTS. HE APPEARED AS HE WAS CLUTCHING AN OBJECT TO HIS CHEST.

FEARING S/ROSAS WAS TURNING TOWARDS US WITH A HANDGUN IN HIS HAND I DISCHARGED ONE MORE BEAN BAG ROUND INTO HIS TORSO AROUND HIS CLENCHED HANDS.

AS SOON AS THE BEAN BAG STRUCK HIT RIGHT HAND, S/ROSAS YELLED "O.K." HE THEN OPENED HIS HANDS. DEPUTY [redacted] IMMEDIATELY STEPPED FORWARD AND GRASPED S/ROSAS BY HIS ANKLES. HE THEN PULLED HIM FROM UNDERNEATH THE BED.

DEPUTY [redacted] GRASPED S/ROSAS RIGHT HAND AND PLACED IT BEHIND HIS BACK. I PLACED S/ROSAS' LEFT HAND BEHIND HIS BACK. DEPUTY [redacted] THEN HANDCUFFED S/ROSAS WITHOUT FURTHER INCIDENT.

SGT SALDECKE WAS PRESENT AND DIRECTED THE USE OF FORCE DURING THE ENTIRE INCIDENT.

DATE: 02-14-2001 FILE NO. 401-02583-2822-146

S/ROSAS WAS THEN TREATED FOR HIS INJURIES AT THE SCENE BY COMPTON FIRE DEPARTMENT.

S/ROSAS WAS THEN ESCORTED TO ST. FRANCIS HOSPITAL BY DEPUTY COCKE AND DEPUTY GIRARD TO BE CLEARED FOR BOOKING.

NARRATIVE

The purpose of this report is to provide additional information regarding this report. On 2/19/01 I contacted S/Rosas at the Central Jail for an interview. I advised S/Rosas of his Miranda rights per SH-AD 477. He stated that he understood his rights and waived them and agreed to speak to me without an attorney present. (See signed Miranda admonition form).

S/Rosas told me that he went to V/[redacted] house on 2/14/01 and got into an argument with V/[redacted] cousin. He did not know the "cousin's" name. He explained that she (the cousin) "pulled a knife" on him and then threw it on the floor. He described the knife as a black and chrome folding style knife.

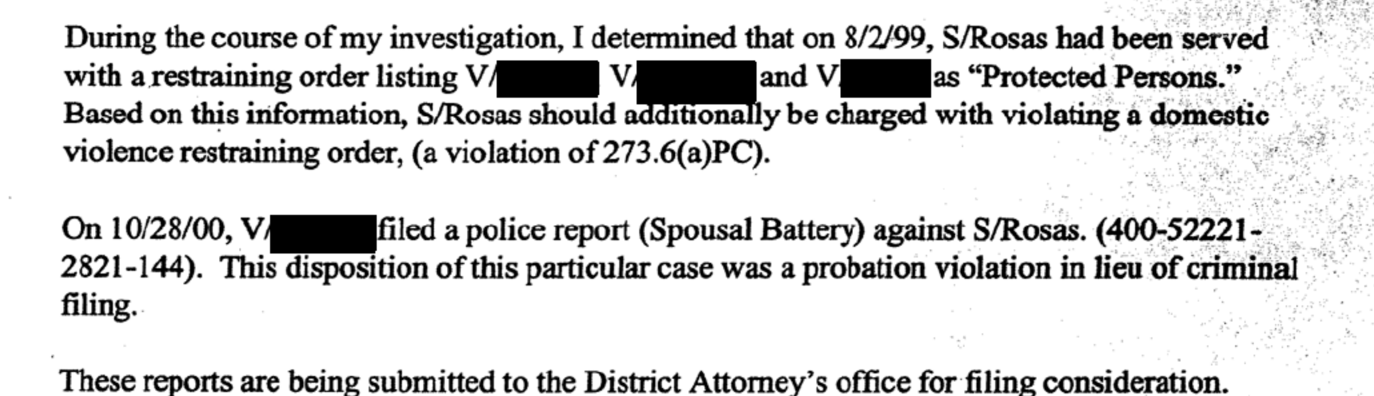

I asked him what he did with the knife. He said that he walked out of the residence and threw it through a closed window, breaking the glass. I asked him to describe the argument with his wife. He then said, "I don't want to talk to you any more, I want my lawyer." I ended my interview with S/Rosas.

During the course of my investigation, I determined that on 8/2/99, S/Rosas had been served with a restraining order listing V/[redacted] V/[redacted] and V/[redacted] as "Protected Persons." Based on this information, S/Rosas should additionally be charged with violating a domestic violence restraining order, (a violation of 273.6(a)PC).

On 10/28/00, V/[redacted] filed a police report (Spousal Battery) against S/Rosas. (400-52221-2821-144). This disposition of this particular case was a probation violation in lieu of criminal filing.

These reports are being submitted to the District Attorney's office for filing consideration.

Incident:

Use of Force, Stun bag round

Recommendation:

[X] I concur.
[ ] I do not concur. (Detailed justification required.)

Action (Document specifically):

After reviewing all reports related to this incident my training lieutenant spoke to the deputies regarding their tactics. Based upon the suspect's actions and statements the use of the stun bag round was within policy. However, all deputies were reminded that the recommended safe distance for use of the stun bag round is 10-25 yards.

Other issues were discussed such as retreating from the room and awaiting the arrival of someone trained in the use of the taser. Sergeant Saldecke was also provided with training in the use of the new M26 taser.
